Background and Organization

The Ohio Attorney General's Bureau of Criminal Investigation, known as BCI, is the state's official crime lab serving the criminal justice community and protecting Ohio families. BCI also provides expert criminal investigative services to local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies upon request. With offices throughout the state, BCI stands ready to respond 24/7 to local law enforcement agencies' needs at no cost to the requesting agency.

Staff at BCI work every day to provide the highest level of service. This includes special agents who are on call 24/7 to offer investigative assistance at crime scenes, knowledgeable scientists and forensic specialists using cutting-edge technology to process evidence to bring criminals to justice, and criminal intelligence analysts and identification specialists who help local law enforcement solve cases.

Experienced special agents, forensic scientists, and other law enforcement experts staff BCI's three main divisions:

- Identification Division
- Investigations Division
- Laboratory Division

The Identification Division provides up-to-date records and state of the art technology to law enforcement and other criminal justice agencies throughout Ohio. The division serves as the central repository for all criminal records for the state of Ohio and maintains fingerprints, palm prints, photographs, and other information related to arrests within the state. The division is made up of the following units:

- The Conversion Unit processes criminal arrest and disposition transactions received by the bureau. This entails data entry, making corrections to submitted records, processing juvenile arrest submissions and updating the criminal repository with disposition information.
- Processing more than 1 million background checks a year, the Civilian Unit processes all fingerprint background check requests, including FBI background checks. The personnel in this unit scan manual cards and perform data entry of demographic data for the cards, update prior background checks upon request and answer questions from the public and background check vendors. Background check results, including criminal history records, are reported directly electronically or printed and mailed from this unit.
- The Quality Assurance Unit is responsible for checking the completeness and accuracy of the computerized criminal history database, and training law enforcement agencies throughout the state on Ohio laws as they relate to criminal history reporting. The unit also conducts audits of Webcheck agencies to determine the degree of compliance and adherence to policies established by the Attorney General's Office and the FBI. The Unit also provides training on the National Webcheck system.
- The Technical Unit is responsible for the verification of all incoming civilian and criminal fingerprint transactions which have been identified with an existing BCI record. Fingerprint Examiners also classify, file and search fingerprint files. They also process all expungement and sealed record requests.

Automated Fingerprint Identification System and Computerized Criminal History Repository

The Bureau of Criminal Investigations Automated Fingerprint Identification System (AFIS) is the state repository of biometric fingerprint information. This database contains all fingerprints submitted to BCI by Law Enforcement agencies when a person is arrested and fingerprints submitted for the purpose of a background check. These databases are described below.

- Criminal ID Information – Fingerprint images submitted to BCI by Law Enforcement agencies with demographic and arrest information. Incoming arrests are compared to existing fingerprints in the database and verified by BCI Fingerprint Examiners if a match. The information is then added to the person's existing record. If no match is found, a new record is established under a new BCI number.
- Civil ID Information – Fingerprint images and related data associated with subjects applying for a job which requires a state mandated background check. These fingerprints are searched against the Criminal ID information to see if there is a match. If a verified match is made, a record (rap sheet) will go out to the agency or individual requesting the information. Fingerprints are also submitted for Carry Concealed weapon licensing and follow the same procedure.

The Computerized Criminal History (CCH) is the repository of fingerprint based criminal arrest records submitted by Law Enforcement agencies and disposition information submitted by courts which is linked to the corresponding arrest information. This information is commonly referred to as the RAP sheet. Major data sets within CCH include:

- Law Enforcement Arrests – Consists of information submitted by law enforcement, typically when an arrest takes place. Information includes person demographics, charges, and data relative to the arrest/booking event. This information is mostly contributed electronically via live scan machines that electronically capture fingerprints and charges, then forward that information to AFIS, which then shares it with CCH.
- Court Dispositions – These are the outcomes of legal proceedings associated with the law enforcement charges. This includes prosecuting attorney actions and court dispositions (i.e. judgments, rulings, sentences). Ideally, dispositions are reported to the CCH repository electronically with the necessary demographic information to match them to the law enforcement arrest
- Custody Status – This information typically indicates the whereabouts of a convicted person when remanded to the custody of the state corrections program. In Ohio, a live scan-based "intake" transaction provides proof that the subject arrived at a correctional facility. In some instances, the CCH repository may receive information regarding the movement of a person from one facility to another, or related logistical events (death, release, etc.).

- Court Supplements – On occasion, supplemental information relative to a person could be contributed from the court. This includes actions related to previous convictions that have been vacated, or instances when a person has been pardoned. These actions are processed using the supplemental functions of the CCH. Currently this information cannot be submitted electronically; the court reports these manually on a 2-71 disposition form.

Information contained in AFIS and CCH is used in the daily protection of the public and law enforcement. Information is used in confirming the identity of persons, in determining eligibility for civil rights and privileges, and in determining jail/prison sentence terms. If they are in error, unreliable or unavailable, the records can:

- Affect law enforcement officers' safety during routine encounters.
- Cause out of state and Law enforcement agencies in other countries to misinterpret a criminal's RAP sheet or possibly not find one
- Allow criminals to have access to vulnerable populations (child care, nursing homes, etc.).
- Allow prohibited persons to have access to firearms permits.
- Delay lawful purchases of firearms.
- Allow repeat criminals to have lesser sentences and incorrectly calculated jail times.

The information in CCH is only as good as the information that is submitted to the database by Law Enforcement and courts. It is essential that the information received is accurate and complete.

Court Reporting Requirements

In accordance with Ohio Revised Code (ORC) 109.60 (A)(3), every court with jurisdiction over criminal felony and escalating misdemeanor cases, must inquire as to whether the adult or child has been fingerprinted for this incident. If not, the court shall order the person or child to appear before the Sheriff or Chief of Police within 24 hours to have fingerprints taken. Furthermore, if fingerprints were not taken upon arrest, the court has the authority to have a person's fingerprints taken at the time of sentencing or adjudication. Either of these actions will produce the arrest ITN that can then be used to submit the corresponding disposition information to CCH.109.60(A)(3):

(3) Every court with jurisdiction over a case involving a person or child with respect to whom division (A)(1) or (2) of this section requires a sheriff or chief of police to take the person's or child's fingerprints shall inquire at the time of the person's or child's sentencing or adjudication whether or not the person or child has been fingerprinted pursuant to division (A)(1) or (2) of this section for the original arrest or court appearance upon which the sentence or adjudication is based. If the person or child was not fingerprinted for the original arrest or court appearance upon which the sentence or adjudication is based, the court shall take the person's or child's fingerprints or shall order the person or child to appear before the sheriff or chief of police within twenty-four hours to have the person's or child's fingerprints taken. If the court orders the person or child to appear before the sheriff or chief of police to have the person's or child's fingerprints taken, the sheriff or chief of police shall take the person's or child's fingerprints, or cause the fingerprints to be taken, according to the fingerprint system of identification on the forms furnished by the superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and investigation and immediately forward copies of the completed forms, any other description that may be required, and the history of the offense committed to the bureau to be classified and filed and to the clerk of the court.

Data Submission Process

There are three ways for courts to submit disposition information to BCI. The preferred method is electronically via File Transfer Protocol (FTP). This automated process involves mapping data from a court system to a standard file layout from BCI and sending it electronically to populate CCH. The specification document can be found here. <https://www.ohioattorneygeneral.gov/Files/Forms/Forms-for-BCI-Criminal-Records-and-Background-Chec/Forms-for-Court/Electronic-Disposition-Specifications> For guidance in setting up this method, contact the Ohio Attorney General's Information Technology Section by email at ITSupport@OhioAttorneyGeneral.gov or by phone at 800-750-7922.

The second way to submit disposition information to BCI is by completing a paper Final Disposition Form (form 2-71). How to fill out a 2-71 form: <https://www.ohioattorneygeneral.gov/Files/Publications-Files/Background-Check-Publications/2-71-form-with-field-descriptions.aspx>

This form should follow the incident from arrest through disposition, which means the form will originate with the law enforcement agency and then be completed by the court with disposition information and mailed to BCI Attn: Identification at P.O. Box 365 London, OH 43140. If a court receives a 2-71 form from law enforcement without an ITN, the disposition can be submitted. If it does not attach because the arrest is not on file, the BCI Quality Assurance Unit or the prospective court can follow up with the arresting agency to obtain fingerprints for that arrest. Once the fingerprints are submitted to BCI, the disposition can be resubmitted.

The third way to submit disposition information to BCI is electronically via the Ohio Courts Network (OCN), a program managed by the Supreme Court. If the court already submits information to OCN, it is not automatically forwarded to BCI. If an agency wants to use the OCN method to submit data to BCI, the agency needs to specify this when signing up with OCN. Indicating that the information needs to be sent to BCI and not only maintained as a part of the OCN file will ensure the dispositions reach the CCH. To participate in this program, contact the OCN Helpdesk at 614-387-9980 or via email at OCNHelpdesk@sc.ohio.gov

How does it work?

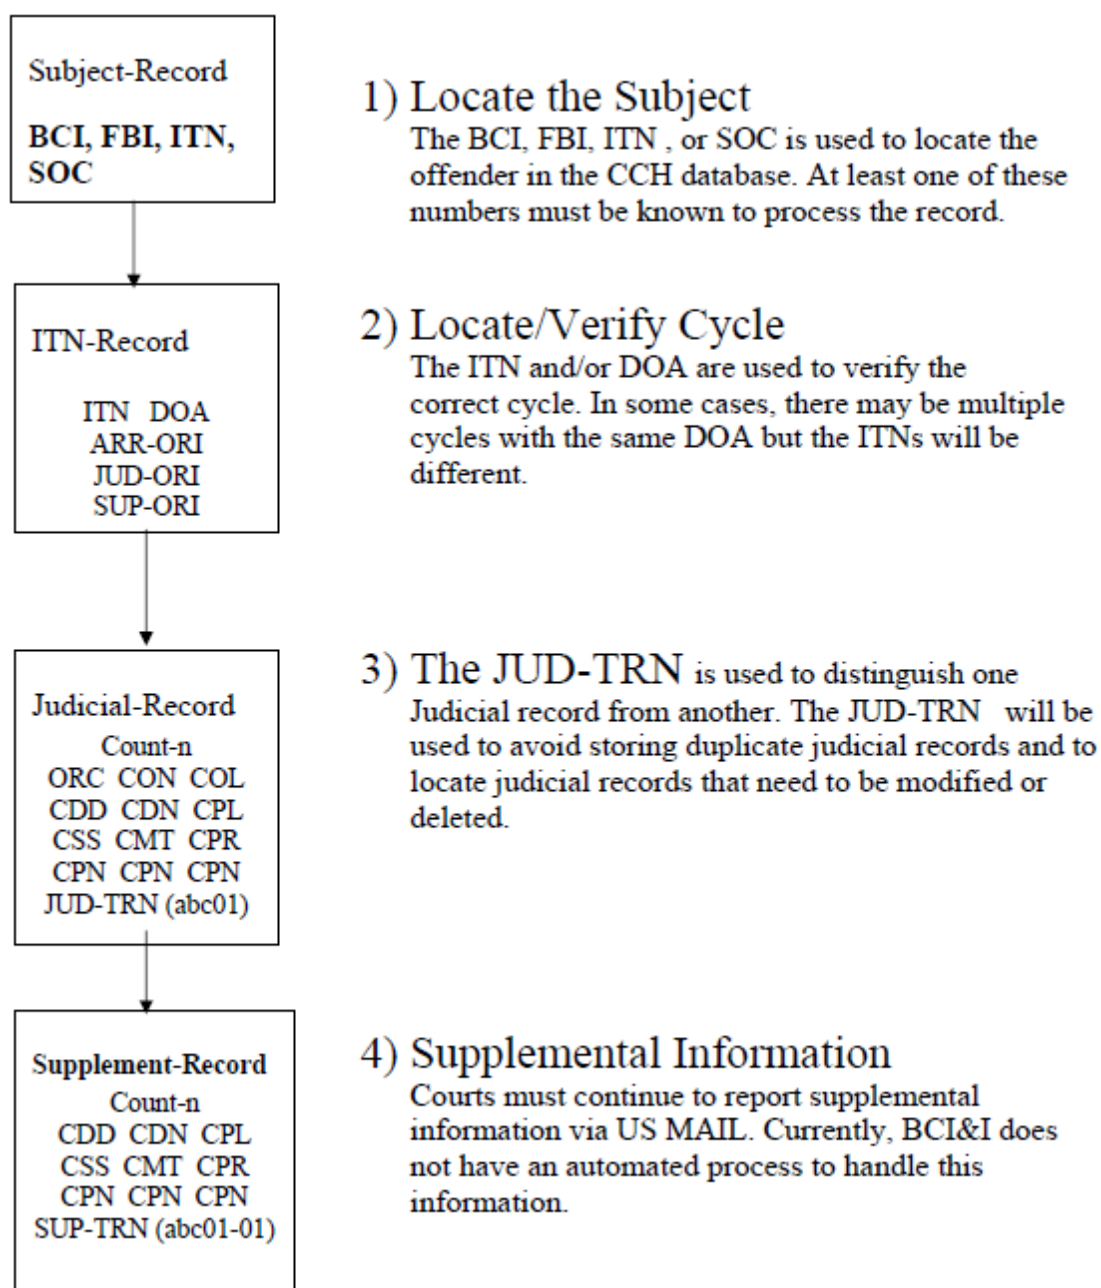

Electronic submissions are linked to an arrest in CCH by various fields. The preferred field that successfully attaches a disposition to an arrest is the Incident Tracking Number (ITN). This number is automatically generated by the Livescan machine everytime a Law Enforcement agency fingerprints someone and transmits the information to BCI. If manually taking prints and mailing the fingerprint cards to BCI, the ITN number is still the preferred method. BCI provides ten print fingerprint cards with preprinted ITN numbers to agencies free of charge. There are various other fields that can be searched in CCH if the ITN number is not present as listed below (a diagram of the workflow is also included):

The BCI, UCN (FBI), Incident tracking number (ITN), or the Social security number (SOC) is used to locate offenders in the CCH database. The UCN (FBI), ITN, and SOC are not always unique and may result in a list of possible offenders. The ITN is the preferred key used to locate offenders. If the ITN is missing or occurs multiple times in the CCH database, the Date of arrest or date fingerprinted (DOA) is required to verify the arrest. The arrests under each possible offender are checked against the DOA on the disposition record. If the disposition DOA does not match the arrest DOA, the disposition will not be stored.

The Judicial tracking number (JUD-TRN) is required to locate a specific disposition pertaining to the arrest. Each disposition pertaining to an arrest must have a unique JUD-TRN. The JUD-TRN will prevent duplicate disposition records from being stored. The JUD-TRN will make it possible for courts to submit modify or delete disposition records using record types MR3B and XR3B respectively. If a disposition without a JUD-TRN already exists for an arrest, then additional dispositions cannot be added. Dispositions entered manually by a BCII operator will not have JUD-TRNs.

Examples of information commonly found in the CPL field

- Credit 10D for time served
- 30D house arrest
- $25 costs, $150 fine suspended (when there is an amount in the CFN field), $300 restitution (if amount unknown, use CPN code for restitution)
- 1Y license suspension
- Anger Management program
- 3D Driver Intervention Program

Whenever possible, information in the CPL should not be abbreviated (except for accepted formats established for time (days, months, years). If due to space limitations abbreviations are necessary, they should be common abbreviations that the public in general would understand. Rap Sheets are regularly mailed to non-criminal justice agencies or individuals, therefore, using abbreviations that only Law Enforcement could understand would lead to numerous phone calls from the public. If abbreviations must be used, please refer to the following examples:

Abbreviation	Meaning
30D Comm Serv	30 days community service
100HRS Comm Serv	100 hours community service
15D Credit FTS	15 days credit for time served
Susp	Suspended
Prob	Probation
DOA	Date of Arrest
Sent	Sentence
$500 Rest	$500 Restitution
$200 Cost	$200 court cost

Fatal Errors

Multi-cycle with same ITN

There are 2 or more arrests on file with the same ITN. The program cannot determine which arrest corresponds to the disposition.

Q: How do I resolve this?

A: No action is necessary, BCI manually enters the information

Multi-cycle with same DOA

There are 2 or more arrests on file that occurred on the same day. The program cannot determine which arrest corresponds to the disposition.

Q: How do I resolve this?

A: No action is necessary, BCI manually enters the information

Required field invalid

This message is displayed beside the field that has been entered incorrectly. This could happen due to a variety of reasons. Usually it is a format issue; for example, the date of birth has to be submitted YYYYMMDD

Q: How do I resolve this?

A: Review the error listed on the report and refer to specifications indicating in what format that field should be submitted. Correct the error, and resend electronically with the next file.

Required field missing

This message is displayed beside the field that has been left blank. Within the specifications there are several combinations by which the search for a matching offender is processed. If one of those fields is missing the program will error because it can't complete the search without it.

Q: How do I resolve this?

A: Identify which field was submitted without information. Refer to the specifications to verify what fields are mandatory for successful attachment. Add the missing field and resend electronically with the next file. In some cases a different combination of fields might have to be submitted if you do not have the information on the missing field.

Disposition already on file

Either a disposition has already been sent electronically and accepted, or BCI staff has entered it manually.

Q: How do I resolve this?

A: No action is necessary

Matching TRN (tracking number) not found

The disposition program could not find a disposition in CCH that had the same TRN as the disposition record submitted. In order to delete/modify a disposition in CCH, the TRN on the CCH must match the TRN on the submission.

Q: How do I resolve this?

A: Resend the disposition as a new entry, not as a modification.

Detailed Report Errors:

Note – the list below does not include all error messages

Offender not on file

Unable to locate an offender with CCH. This means that BCI did not receive a fingerprint card for this individual. The agency needs to be contacted to obtain a fingerprint card for the offender.

Q: How do I resolve this?

A: The Quality Assurance Unit receives detailed reports and contacts the arresting agency if the ITN number is listed. If there is no ITN number, the court should contact the arresting agency if that information is available. Without an ITN number QA does not know where the arrest came from and would not be able to locate that information. Please note that this applies to dispositions sent electronically via FTP. If sending through OCN the number of these will increase since non reportable information is included in this portion of the report.**

Cycle not on file/No corresponding arrest record on file

An offender has been located, but this incident or date of arrest is not on file. The agency needs contacted to supply a fingerprint card for that arrest.

Q: How do I resolve this?

If there is no ITN number, the court should contact the arresting agency if that information is available. Disposition found without a TRN

Q: How do I resolve this?

A: No action is necessary

Records contained supplement data and were ignored

The disposition was ignored because the system interpreted the record to be supplemental data which cannot be processed electronically at this time.

Q: How do I resolve this?

A: Mail the supplemental information to BCI for manual processing.

CCH Query Error

The data didn't load properly into CCH.

Q: How do I resolve this?

A: No action is necessary

Invalid Size

That data is not formatted per specifications

Q: How do I resolve this?

A: The court should resubmit the data

What should not be transmitted electronically?

1. Relief from disability – these can be mailed/faxed or emailed to BCI and must contain the person's demographics and the case number(s) the person has been granted relief of disability for along with the journal entry signed by the judge. A copy or a fax is acceptable, it does not have to be an original.
2. Vacate orders/Sentence modifications or corrections – If you do not have the capability to electronically submit modifications, these must be faxed, emailed or mailed to BCI. These can be submitted on court letterhead, on a journal entry or a correction form provided by BCI <https://www.ohioattorneygeneral.gov/Files/Forms/Forms-for-BCI-Criminal-Records-and-Background-Chec/Forms-for-Court/BCI-CORRECTION-FORM-COURT-DISPOS> and must contain the person's demographics; the initial sentencing information and the case number.
3. Probation Violations without an ITN number – This is considered supplemental information and cannot be submitted electronically. If submitted electronically, it would reject because there would already be a disposition on file containing the initial sentence. If you know the ITN number for the initial arrest include it with the information sent to BCI.
If an ITN number is provided by law enforcement for the Probation Violation charge, the disposition for the Probation Violation can be submitted electronically under that ITN number.
4. Duplicate ITN's – some counties will fingerprint a person for the same offense when they are transferred to the jail, when they are bonded out, when they are indicted, etc. This causes duplicate arrests on a person's record with different dates of arrest that are all linked to the same incident. Report the disposition electronically on any of the ITN numbers. All other "duplicate/same incident" ITN numbers should be reported manually.
Below is an example of how to do this:

BCI Form 2-71 Final Disposition Bureau of Criminal Investigation

Each arrest cycle must include a Final Disposition. Arrests and Number (ITN) which is unique throughout the incident. The ITN space is provided for the ITN on this Disposition Form. To ensure please reproduce or hand copy the ITN from the Arrest Tenprint P.O. Box 365, London, OH 43140-0365.

5. Cases in which charges were not filed in court. The arresting agency can also submit a request asking BCI to remove the arrest from CCH since an expungement will not be available from the court since there wasn't a case.
6. Cases in which the prosecutor declined to file charges and that did not get forwarded to the court.
7. Arrests in which the arresting agency released the person without charging them. The court can submit the information if available to them, or the submitting agency can request that BCI remove the arrest from CCH.
